CONSUMPTION: Its Cure and Its Preventive. BY J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of sure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleep-ing the dreamless slumber into which, had they calm-ly adorted ing the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmily adopted

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT, and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have failen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptious. To the faith of the invalid is made no representations that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition, the broughial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here, then, comen the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Pedophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The viriated The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its orpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last.

A SUPPLY OFGOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylifical permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylifica, tion is now progressing without sits previous tortures. Digestion becomes painles, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or the womanhood that was womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Freshair, and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is a great point to gain. GIVEN UP AS LOST.

To deepair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:
"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week, sumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

"As soon as that began to subside, my cough fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; m weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professiona visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck. Jr., still continue to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Those who wish a thorange from a stranger of the Reservice. phia, every Saturday, from 9 a. m. to 3 p.m. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs and patients can readily learn whether they are consider or not and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrahe Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

ceed the number built last year, which was thought to be the most remarkable year in that respect in the history of the capital. There is also a noticeable improvement in the character of the houses now going up. Last year there were a great many blocks of cheap houses, built to rent or to sell on speculation; but this season the new buildings are chiefly separate dwellings, intended for homes for those who build them, and ranging in value from $10,000 to $50,000. The steady growth of the portions of the city occupied by the better class of dwellings is a constant surprise to even those people who have always been sanguine in their hopes for the properity of the capital, and is thought to indicate a steady influx of persons of leisure and means, who find in Washington attractions which induce them to make their homes there. There is talk of holding an election; and submitting to the people the question of issuing the proposed $4,000,000 of bonds for improvement of streets, &c., and an election would unquestionably result in tayor of issuing the bonds, for all the laboring population, white and black, and a large number of property-owners, want to have the projected improvements made.—Wash. The Fenian Excitement in Dublin.

London, August 7.—A dispatch from Dublin says the city is quiet, but the excitement of the populace has not subsided. It is generally thought that the sympathizers with the Fenian prisoners have not given up the idea of holding another meeting, in spite of the prohibition of the authorities. The sentiment of the majority of the people is in favor of granting amnesty to all Fenian priconers, but the violent opposition to the authorities is generally deprecated. The belief was that the Royal visit will be made the opportunity by the government for the release of the imprisoned Fenians. The populace is very bitter against the Prince of Wales, because he has not interceded for amnesty. Confederate versus Union Soldiers. The Grand Army Aroused .- Beat'ng the Long Roll. The recent appointment of Mr. E. R. Rox-The recent appointment of Mr. E. R. Rox-bury, of Virginia, and an ex-confederate soldier, to a first class clerkship in the Post Office De-partment, has aroused a general feeling of in-digazion among the members of the Grand Army of the Republic in this city, who have officially rotified the National Encampment of officially rotified the National Encampment of the appointment referred to, and also of the fact that quite a number of ex-confederate soldiers are holding positions in other departments of the Government, to the exclusion of men who served throughout the war in the Union army. The members of the G. A. R. in this city are confident that the National Encampment of the organization will take cognizance of this state of affairs with such action as will bring about the immediate dismissal of all ex-confederates from positions under the general government.

In case such dismissals are not made they openly announce their intention of not only opposing President Grant's re-nomination, but of voting for some other soldier, even Gen. Hancock, who will see that in the matter of appoint-cock, who will see that in the matter of appointments under Government, discrimination shall be made in favor of Union soldiers.

They claim that Roxbury, recently appointed in the Post Office, has publicly boasted in the Department of his services in the rebel army, and that the statement that he is endorsed by Senator Lewis or Representative McKenzie, of Virginia, is false. They attribute his appointment to the favoritism of First Assistant Postmaster General Marshall, and assert that it was made solely on versional grounds and without master General Marshalt, and ascert that it was made solely on personal grounds, and without reference to the political fitness of the ap-plicant. Roxbury claims that he has been a consistent republican since the war; that he is endorsed by republicans, and that he has as good a right to a perition under government as General Longstreet or Attorney General Aker-

Whatever the result of the matter may be, it is evident that the members of the Grand Army are deeply in earnest in their opposition to the appointment of ex-Confederates to office under the general government, and that they will take steps to make their influence felt accordingly. Mr. Lewis is a very small man, and while riding on horseback by Corriell, the latter, a mun veighing 180 pounds, threw a hatchet which struck Mr. Lewis in the back. He threw it a second time, and it again cut Mr. Lewis in the back. When Mr. Lewis returned some time afterwards Corriell again made a savage attack on him with the same weapon, wounding him se-

THE HACKNEN.—A committee, recently ap-pointed at a meeting of the Hackmen's Associ-ation, had an interview with the Committee on Police of the Council yesterday, and submitted a statement, from the books of the City Register, showing the tax derived by the city from licenses for carriages owned by the livery-stable men amounting to only $22,000. Washington and Severn Camp Meet-[Camp Meeting Correspondence of The Star. Jackson's Grove, A. A. Co., Md., August 5th, 1871.—Y: terday morning the usual prayer meetings were he'd before breaktast, after which an experience meeting was held in the Severn circuit tent; and a prayer meeting at the Washington Company's tent. These meetings were continued after breakfast, and at about 9 o'clock a very spirited experience meeting took place at the stand led by Rev. Messrs. Mullen and Hall. At 10% o'clock the bell sounded for the preaching services, when Rev. Mr. Hartsock discoursed from the words "I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness," Psalm xvil, part of 15th verse. This sermon was one of the best yet delivered on the ground, and was inter.

spersed with appropriate quotations from the After the dinner hour, the Severn tent was occupied by a prayer and experience meeting, and a very interesting meeting was held in one of the private tents for young people and led by Mrs. Linville. At ibree o'clock, Rev. Mr. Muller, the junior minister of the circuit, preached from Philippians, 4:15—"I can do all things through Christ which strengthened me"—a surprisingly fine discourse for a young man. He called attention first to the term all and to the word can as the opposite of can't which had proved a constitution of the carry that the ca opposite of can't, which had never accomplished any desirable results. We might perhaps not be able to do all things, but with the aid of Jesus could accomplish much. He urged his congregation not to reject the claims of the Saviour. ard in glowing terms contrasted the character of the Christian and the unconverted man. An invitation was given, not only to sinners, but those who desire more religion, and a number presented themselves at the altar; several, before the close, professing to receive the sought-

THE $10,000 RACE IT. SARATOGA.—The great four-mile race at saratoga is creating an intense excitement in sporting circles throughout the State, as a bet of $10,000 a side was made august 2 between the owners of Long ellow and Kingfisher. The race takes place at the August meeting, commencing on the 16th. The lessees of the Saratoga course have made arrangements on the most extensive scale, and it is their intention that the affair shall be conducted in a style that will induce turfmen from all quarters of the world to see the great race. It is reported that Mr. Harper will put in Lyttleton or Express to assist Longfellow, and Mr. Belmont Slensey to assist Kingfisher. General Buford has brought Enquirer, the crack of last year, from Kentucky, and he will have him in with one of his other horses to assist. There is great rivalry between Buford and Harper as to these two colts. Both are by Leamington, and both are claimed to be best, and are competitors in Kentucky. Last year Enquirer had the lead; this year Longfellow has it, and they will meet in this four-mile at Saratoga.—N. F. Sun.
